Whats New

All our lodges are bespoke at Hentervene. The Hazel tree takes elements from across the Pinelog range and presents them in a unique fashion, with spacious living accommodation, en suite facilities, and minimal running costs thanks to its Larch exterior and superior insulation properties.

Their ethos is simple. Pinelog use traditional skills and high-quality materials to create lodges of distinction that are robust, low maintenance and last a lifetime. All Pinelog lodges are expertly crafted by their own experienced tradesmen, who are committed to quality, have an eye for detail and take real pride in getting things right.

The Skyline

The Essence?

Pinelog Interior

The internal cladding in a pinelog lodge is timber throughout, be it the pale pine interior associated with traditional log cabins, or the white knot free timber cladding evoking a more seaside feel. Colour comes from the wealth of quality fabrics available for the blinds or curtains throughout the lodge.

Kitchen design can be as bespoke as any residential home, with options for larders, wine fridges, heated drawers, kitchen islands, fully integrated appliances, whatever you wish.

Bespoke Design

The designers at Pinelog are among the most experienced in lodge design, and can offer all sorts of suggestions beyond their published range. None of the 25 lodges we have at Hentervene built by Pinelog are built from a brochure within their range, they all have unique design elements to suit the customer.

'We went with a Pinelog lodge and think it's the best decision we've made. We worked with Steve, Cathy and Pinelog designers to get the specifications right for us, and how we would live in and use it. From designing good storage, to a lovely kitchen and bathrooms, to being able to 'work from home'

Our Community

We believe the best way to understand what makes Hentervene unique is to hear from those who call it home away from home. From stunning views to peaceful living, here's why our lodge and caravan owners fell in love with Hentervene Holiday Park.

We decided to buy at Hentervene for many reasons. The location is perfect, close to our favourite beach, yet overlooking beautiful countryside. The quality of the lodges and attention to detail were second to none. The friendly professionalism of the Turner family made our decision to buy very easy indeed - nothing appears to be too much trouble. Finally, we have complete peace of mind, knowing our lodge is in safe hands when we are not there.

Hentervene site is a little bit of paradise in a beautiful part of Cornwall. The site is extremely well maintained and has everything you need for a great holiday or a few days break. Cathy and Steve the site owners are super helpful and around to help you with their knowledge of the local area informing you of the best places to visit locally. I can't recommend this place enough ... it is a little gem in Cornwall.

We decided over a year ago that a lodge would be a perfect refuge from our hectic lives, and then had to look long and hard to find the right site. The first time we saw Hentervene we knew it was right for us. It's quiet, in a beautiful setting, and the lodges are in spacious plots on a site that is very well looked after. The whole process of buying and locating a lodge has been made very easy by the Turners who could not have been more helpful. They are clearly committed to quality and working with the environment both of which are very important to us. If you've been lucky enough to find Hentervene, you really do not need to look any further.
